

KIM, LEO AND ZAC meet in the park. Zac shows them the two soccer player models he drew: there is a striker and goalkeeper on every page. Kim likes the solid-colored robots, because they seem so elegant. But Leo prefers the ones with striped shirts, because they are the colors of his favorite team.

LOOKING AT THE ZAC'S DRAWING,

The Inseparables select the parts they need and think about how they can make them all fit together. Lukas calculates how many parts of each type they will need on his calculator, while Chloe writes them down. Working together as a team, they are all doing a great job.

THE DAY OF THE COMPETITION is finally here.

They are all feeling nervous.

All of them have their functions and it is very important for them all to do everything right so that everything is perfect.

Shh. Silence. Everything is ready:
the competition is going to start.
